

Demonstrating and managing performance in a charity

John Roche-Kuroda and Phil Jones explain how The Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Fund has achieved significant benefits through adopting a modern balanced scorecard approach to evaluating performance.

This article will be available from 12th June once published by ACF